“ Alfred I was a young teenager the last time I saw you, but what I remember the most besides no body better mess with your Sister’s, is your smile and always making sure that I was ok... The world needs more Men like you. I’m sure your Mom met you at Heaven’s gates with a plate of her homemade biscuits along with her own homemade syrup... Those were the day’s. I was blessed to have memories of your wonderful family. Rest Easy...🥹😊🥰
