“ Barbara Jean, I'm so thankful to have had a Christian friend as you. You had such character as a true and faithful Christian. You was always but working in the church and the community. Busy visiting the sick at home and the hospital. I'm thankful you was a Christian friend to my mother when she was sick. I still remember the beautiful flowers you always send mother when she was at home and at the hospital. I still have baskets from the flowers. Also, thankful for the food and dry goods you left on the porch. Happily, i remember Thanksgiving dinner with your family from Miami, Florida. I hope you and mother is singing and dancing in heaven .I miss you

“ Heyyyyy Barbaaaaaara.. it's me again I went to our favorite primary care doctor today and I thought about you while I was there.. after our visits you would always say (what did he say) like you always did.. and the both of us would say i don't know because we couldn't understand a word he was saying.. he always spoke that broken Spanish
I had a appointment today and it brought back so many memories
This was my laugh for today I miss you
Annie M ... Floyd would always call you that name

“ Barbara for the past year and a half you have been the other half of me I'm truly going to miss your beautiful smile and you listening to your favorite songs.. we would stay up all time of night just so you could ask Alexa to play your songs.. i don't have any desire to cook your favorite food.. I went to Walmart up in Moultrie and I still brought everything as though you was still on this earth.. but somehow I'll get through it .. we will Miss going to your favorite restaurants etc. well it was mine too.. we' ll also miss eating all the good Cuban food that you liked to experiment on alongside with me too
Barbara although I loved you dearly i couldn't make you stay.. God broke my heart to prove to me he only takes the best
