Good morning, beloved family and friends,

With a heavy heart, I must share the news that my dear mother, Daisy 🌻🕊️, passed away on February 19, 2024. The cruel grasp of Covid led to blood clots in her lungs, depriving her brain of the life-giving oxygen it needed. Despite the challenging circumstances, she found peace and comfort in her final moments at the hospital in Thomasville, Ga.

Daisy, a woman of quiet strength and gentle spirit, had always been reserved. Her final wish was to be cremated, a solemn request that we faithfully honored. Today, her ashes rest with me, a tangible reminder of her enduring presence in our lives.

She leaves behind her two beloved children, Eddie C. Williams and myself, Vanessa N. Zeigler-Hedger. Eddie is married to Kanisha D. Williams, and together they have blessed our family with two precious children. As for me, I am married to Daniel Hedger, and our family has grown to include four beautiful children.

Daisy, affectionately known as Mama, was cherished beyond words and will forever remain in our hearts, a beacon of love and strength that guides us through our days. Your outpouring of condolences and well wishes during this difficult time is deeply appreciated.

Thank you all for your unwavering support and love.
