“ Sending my sincere condolences to the family. Johnny was a hardworking good guy. We would often have serious talks about different things and share thoughts and views on things. Never would have thought I would have received this news still shocked. Its a honor to have meet and known Johnny I never had a issue with Johnny he would always offering a helping hand with anything and no Matter how hard the job was he didn't complain he was just that type of guy you will be missed brother job well done RIP brother

“ My main man Tripp J will be missed. He always had something positive to say in the mist of the storm. He would always find light in the middle of the darkness. If ever I needed him to fix something on my car or in my house he would always be there. My brother will be missed.
