“ *My uncle and i would have talks and chats sitting on his porch or inside his facility home when i came home to visit. I made sure he was one of my many stops and spent time while visiting. Glad i did. When he decided to dedicate his life to Christ, God saw fit to have me push him right up to the altar by his request at my aunt's funeral. One of the happiest days of my life! We had great talks, cries, and memory lane chats about family, and my Mama. You will be missed Unk Junebug, until we meet again, take your rest, love ya!
