

Mr. Lewis (Flip) Jackson Stephens, II

June 22, 1963 - May 17, 2026

Mr. Lewis Jackson Stephens, II, affectionately known as “Flip,” departed this life on May 17, 2026, at Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia. He was born on June 22, 1963, to the late Lewis Jackson Stephens, Sr. and the late Betty Jean Adams Stephens.

Lewis was a dedicated cabinet installer with Ray Hall Cabinets, where he took pride in his craftsmanship and hard work. He was a man of many talents and hobbies, finding joy in playing the guitar, golfing, fishing, and repairing electronics. Known for his loving and kind-hearted spirit, Lewis also had a dry sense of humor that brought laughter and comfort to those around him.

For 24 wonderful years, Lewis shared a loving and devoted marriage with his wife, Tammy Hall Stephens. Together they built a life filled with love, laughter, and cherished memories.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife, Tammy Hall Stephens; two sons, Ryan Stephens Tomko and Tyler Stephens Tomko; one sister, Renee Luke (Daniel); his beloved fur baby, Daisy Rae; and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

In addition to his parents, Lewis was preceded in death by his two brothers, Tommy Stephens and Randy Stephens.
