

Mrs. Mary Slaughter Cheevers

August 26, 1955 - May 31, 2018

Mrs. Mary Lois Slaughter Cheevers, 62, entered into rest on Thursday, May 31, 2018 at Select Specialty Hospital in Tallahassee, Florida.

Sister Mary Lois Slaughter Cheevers was born August 26, 1955 in Doerun, Georgia to the late Roosevelt Slaughter and the late Gladys Mae Walls Slaughter.

Sister Cheevers was a homemaker and served diligently. She was a faithful servant at the Beulah Grove Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Fred Clay. She served on the mothers' board, as a deaconess, and past culinary arts director. In her spare time, she loved making memories with her family, watching television, and shopping.

She was preceded in death by her parents; three brothers, Henry Slaughter, Oswald Slaughter, and Anthony Slaughter; and one sister, Ruby Slaughter Edwards.

She leaves to cherish her memories a devoted husband, Willie B. Cheevers of Doerun, Georgia; two beloved daughters, Stacy Chambers Jones of Doerun, Georgia and Eugena Cole of Moultrie, Georgia; and one loving son, Brian Cole (Nakatia) of Moultrie, Georgia; five loving grandchildren, Maiya Thompson, Zakias Boyd, Zamaiya Wright, Quinahri Thornton, and Cambric Jones; one sister, Rosie King of Ocoee, Florida; three brothers, James Slaughter (Shirley) of Apopka, Florida, Alexander Slaughter (Dorothy) of Huntington, New York, and Thomas Slaughter of Doerun, Georgia; two sisters-in-law, Jennifer Hawkins and Brenda Slaughter; one god-brother, Danny Jackson of Bridgeboro, Georgia; one special friend, Linda Moore of Moultrie, Georgia and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
