“ To Carolyn, Linda, and Catherine, our sorrow is more than words can express. I will always cherish my childhood memories when our parents would go on those long fishing trips and take us along. Our dads were friends and left us at an early age and our moms remained friends to this day. As you already know your mom was a sweet person inside and out and she will truly be missed. We (Moss family) will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Sister, Linda, and Carolyn, thinking of you at this time in your life. Stay strong for each other. I have fond memories of Mary Kate, spending time at your house when I was little. Cherish and remember the good times shared with your Mom. You are always in my thoughts and prayers. I love you all.

Love,
