“ Aunt Mae Betty as she was affectionately known was one of the most encouraging people I have ever met. She encouraged everyone. She wanted the best for others and she believed in others when they didn't believe in themselves. She would always make time for others not just her family. She was a true humanitarian. By profession, she was a nurse, but God also used her to nurse the spiritual wounds people carried. One can't count the random deeds she did to seemingly random people. Regardless of the challenges, Mae Betty was larger than life and I am fortunate to have know her and called her my aunt.
