“ I just saw this obituary. I remember "Bowlegs" fondly as a little kid who enjoyed life. He usually had a smile on his face, even while we were working in the tobacco fields. I know his brother Jim is also deceased, but I wonder whether any of the other Hightower children are still living.

*Paul, you were like a Big-Brother and mentor to me during or time in elementary through high school. I especially remember the three seasons that we played on the JW Holley High School football team (Wildcats) together. By todays standard, we would have been awarded college scholarships', but during that era only 3 schools in Georgia were available. I am sure you're Resting in Peace because you trusted in Jesus as Savior!!!
Your friend, DUCK.*
