“ Randy was a beautiful person!
He loved looking sharp and loved to laugh. He wore a beautiful smile every time i saw him...He was a true gentleman and he was my friend and I will miss him greatly.

If i could leave you with a lasting memory it would be that Randy loved Jesus. We had many many conversations on his relationship with Christ and he often shared videos and gospel songs with me. He also loved his family ..every last one of you.

*I pray the LORD Jesus have Amazing Grace over his servant Randy.
My heart felt condolences to all who loved him..and was blessed to know him.*

“ Team Salt and Pepper for Life

Randy made me a better person.

From the moment we met at Eversource, he changed my life. I came from New Hampshire—one of the whitest states in the country—and honestly, I hadn't had much opportunity to connect deeply with people of color. That wasn't by choice, just circumstance. So, walking into work that first day and getting partnered with Randy to train me, I didn't know what to expect.

When the supervisor told him he had to train me, Randy rolled his eyes and said, “Do I have to?” I remember thinking, Oh boy, this is going to be a long day.

But once we got in the car and started talking—about sports, where I was from, life in general—we clicked. Something just worked. We started laughing, trading stories, and building a connection. Before long, we became known as “Team Salt and Pepper,” and Randy became one of my best friends.

Even after I left Eversource, we kept in touch, making time to talk every week. We had deep conversations and shared a lot of laughs—so many laughs. Randy had a way of opening my eyes to things I had never considered. He helped me grow as a person, challenged my thinking, and always did it with humor, grace, and that unforgettable laugh.

I'm heartbroken. I've lost not just a friend, but a brother. It still doesn't feel real.

To Randy's family—please know how much he loved you. He talked about you often and was so incredibly proud. I send you all my love and deepest condolences.

Randman, I love you, and I miss you terribly. Thank you for your friendship. Thank you for being there. And thank you for making me a better man.

Your friend always,

Mike Caravella
