“ Inna, we are saddened and send our sympathies and prayers for God's comfort to you and the entire Gooden/Rogers families for the loss of beloved Rosa. She has fought the good fight and has paid the debt that those of us living still owe. We rejoice with you in our solemn belief that according to the Word, Rosa is present with our Lord. With thank God with you that Rosa is no longer in pain from a mortal body that is only meant to eventually fail us all. We celebrate her life, her smile, her contributions, and her joyful presence during the time she had here with us. And, we thank God for the comfort in knowing we will see her again.

*In peace and love,
Your family:

I appreciate your condolences, Renee, Dino and Kelsey. Rosa's physical presence will be forever missed. The ability to call her to just say, "Hey Ro, how are you doing?" And she would respond by saying, "Hey Sis! I doing fine." 🙏 Or, the opportunity to travel by car for six hours to stay overnight with her and just enjoy each other's presence. But, looking on the bright side of things, I can await the moment when God calls me home to be with Jesus. That would be a joyous day for me! God will keep my heart strengthened and at peace until that moment comes to pass. Thank you, Family, for your continued support and prayers. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen. 🙏❤️👍

Hi Constance! 🙏😊 Thank you for your sympathy and prayers. We all are on this earth for a brief period to fulfill a purpose that God had planned for His children when we were in our Mother's womb. He already knew the Plan for Rosa. He already knew that the moment of her last breath would be at Brightmoor Hospice on February 7th. I'm thankful God allowed family to be standing around her praying during that last moment. TO GOD BE ALL OF THE GLORY! 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

Thanks, Diane, for acknowledging how much Rosa meant to me. And since her passing, I've found out how much I meant to her. I didn't know that Rosa saw me as a Mother figure until her best friend told me days ago. We were 15 years apart so it makes sense that our relationship would be that way. We showed respect for each other. I miss my Sweet Ro but know without doubt that we'll be together again living in eternity with Jesus. 🕊️
