“ I want to send out my deepest condolences to the Wilson's family. Rahz was my hair stylist for years. I recently just found out about her passing, and I'm so devastated, because she was also my friend. Rahz brought so much joy to everyone she touched, so she will be truly missed.

“ This was my hair stylist and she was one of the best !! We would always have a conversation about everything from school to relationships to whatever else it was to talk about , I would always rush my mom to book an appointment so I could talk to her ! I was even telling my mom how I wanted her to do my hair for my 16th birthday ! It breaks my heart that she had to leave so soon but her memories will always love on in my heart !!❤️

“ Your sweet spirit will never be forgotten. Each time I saw you I was so proud of the beautiful woman you had become. Even though you’re no longer physically on this earth, your most beautiful smile will never be forgotten. Live with the angels, Sweet soul! ❤️

“ Rahz was not just my stylist but she was my friend. The Lord connected us about 12 years ago and we stayed connected even after I left GA. My sincerest prayers and deepest condolences to her mother, grandchildren, daughters, son, siblings, family, friends and all whose lives she touched. She will be forever my big sister from another mother. 🙏❤️

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Wilson-Bryant family. This was some devastating news to hear. We all great up together in the 80's and our families attended the same ministry at that time. I cherish our childhood memories. Love from T'umbia H and the entire Ashmon family (Sis. Ashmon, Nate Jr., Naiwatha, Nathaddaeus and Natheodore).
