“ Ms. Daniels was a great woman of God. We often talked about how good God is and we often shared recipes on Southern cooking. Rowena was always giving me encouraging words. Rowena was a family loving person. She gave her all in caring for anyone in her path that was I'll. I'm going to really miss "Ro" she was a true warrior. Ms. Zell and Lovely I'm praying for you both. “ It's hard to find the words when my heart is so broken. My mind and heart started racing when I heard that someone so dear to me had slipped away from me. I started thinking of all our conversations, the first time we met, the last time we talked and the last time I saw your beautiful smile. I don't want forget any moment. Lord knows I wish for more time. I've known you a long time. So soft spoken, so kind but firm and confident. So full of knowledge and concern. Our work relationship bloomed into a life long friendship. Ro you were such an encourager, a real good cheerleader. Compassionate about your Faith, your Family, your Friends and your work. You always gave your best. I light this Candle in your memory Ro. A light that will shine in my heart forever. Mrs. Zell and Lovely, thank you both sharing Ro with me. May you both find peace and comfort in each other and in the love she shared with all of us. God Bless and Keep you In His Loving Care. I Love You Rowena Always❤️❤️

I had the opportunity to meet this beautiful, kind, soft spoken, hardworking, young lady at ASU years ago. It was so wonderful to know her. We would always encourage each other to keep praying. One could surely tell, she loved her family. I thank the Lord, for the memories of her sweet spirit and her smile. May God continue to carry you all, and may He shine His face upon you. May He give you the peace and comfort that only He can give. Please stand on St.john 14. And may our Heavenly Father each day, in the name of His only Son Jesus, strengthen your hearts, day by day in some special way. 🌹🌹

“ Who would have known that the last family reunion would be the last time. Rowena did what she needed to do. I watched her handle things that no one else would want to and some people wouldn't. She gave encouragement to my teenaged daughter that she could be anything that she wanted to be if she just put the work in. I will miss you cousin. Mrs. Zell and Lovely my heartfelt prayers are with you. Her good deeds and kindness speak for themselves. ❤️
