“ When I Must Leave You
by Helen Steiner Rice

*When I must leave you
For a little while-
Please do not grieve
And shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
Through the years,*

*But start out bravely
With a gallant smile;
And for my sake
And for my name
Live on and do
All things the same,*

*Feed not your loneliness
On empty days,
But fill each waking hour
In useful ways,*

*Reach out your hand
In comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near;*

*And never, never
Be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

“Sherella was a cousin and classmate of mine. The last time I saw Sherella was at a cousin of ours, a couple of months ago. She read scripture from the Old Testament.

To the Family:

May God comes in and comforts you in this time of bereavement.

Just know that you will be surrounded by family and friends that will help you while you are grieving your loss. Praying for the family.

“Words cannot express the sincere respect I have for Pastor Sherella and her family. She was a "powerhouse woman of God," who when she preached made the devil tremble and children of God cry out even more for deliverance. She did not play about the God she served. The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. She was my friend and even my late mother's friend and I'll never forget the good times we shared. You were worth more than you'll ever know. Rest in Power my Sister-Friend and know that God's got it from here.
