“ We were the in-laws. The ones that married in. We had our secret laughs, our plans and love for one another. When you marry into a family of siblings, you hope that your in-law's mate becomes more than just an in-law. You will forever be my Sister-in-LOVE. The baby of our quad, the only girl. You accepted me and Shar, no questions and like that we were your big brothers. I'm going to miss that laugh, how you quickly picked up on fabricated story lines in our conversations as Southern Bells, the randomness of videos and photos... I'm going to miss your light. Forever one of the greatest loves of my life. I'm going to miss you little sister. Forever and always. Tonio aka Puddin

“ When I Must Leave You
by Helen Steiner Rice

*When I must leave you
For a little while-
Please do not grieve
And shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
Through the years,*

*But start out bravely
With a gallant smile;
And for my sake
And for my name
Live on and do
All things the same,*

*Feed not your loneliness
On empty days,
But fill each waking hour
In useful ways,
Reach out your hand
In comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near;*

*And never, never
Be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
