“ May you take your well deserved rest now my friend..we the " Hightower " family will cherish the fond memories of playing softball and basketball with you in the community as teenagers. You were always respectful and our parents knew they could trust you around their girls. Of course as we became adults we moved away but each time we came back home you were always the same kind soul. Continued prayers will be sent up for your family you leave behind..Sleep in HEAVENLY PEACE MAN..."THE HIGHTOWER FAMILY"

Growing up as children, I always looked forward to your mom and dad bringing you and your siblings to church (The Walker Street COGIC)in Camilla every meeting Sunday. I cherish those memories still and I pray that God will strengthen your family to carry on in your absence. Love, Debra Pinkins Marcus -Camilla, Fort Valley and Atlanta, GA
