“ Niecy, you already know how I felt about Vanessa. There are no words. She was special to me and our friendship goes all the way back before the Johnsons moved to "town." I remember when we use to sit in her kitchen and drink our coffee and how we use to scratch each other's heads or just hang out on the weekend during our partying days. We reminisced about those memories during our last talk. I know she loved her family and did everything she could to make sure you all were good! You were her rock as well and I know how proud she was about you and Kevin and how she loved her grandbabies. I love her and will truly miss her. So you keep your head up because you know that is what she would say. RIP Vanessa Watts.
